

BIOREGENE Crème Contour des Yeux is an exquisite anti-wrinkle hydrating cream for the eye contour area. The delicate skin of this area is thin and it lacks support of large muscles and adipose tissue. It is also constantly subject to eye movements and changes of facial expressions. For these reasons the eye contour area is one of the firsts to display signs of aging and formation of wrinkles that progressively become more visible.

BIOREGENE Crème Contour des Yeux is explicitly formulated to repair, reinforce, and hydrate the skin. It has a light touch and a delicate perfume to ensure excellent penetration into the skin with maximum comfort and tolerability

Recommended use

BIOREGENE Crème Contour des Yeux is to be used exclusively on the skin of periorbital (eye-contour) and temple regions. It helps keep the skin firm, elastic, and wrinkle-free. The product is excellent both for men and women of all ages. It can be used either as a preventative measure to hold back formation of wrinkles, or as a diminishing product to help reduce their size and visibility.

Application

In the morning and specially at night after complete cleansing of face apply BIOREGENE Crème Contour des Yeux to the eye-contour area with a delicate massage. For the eye orbit region use light semi-circular movements towards the external corners of the eyes. For the temple region use radiating movements away from the external corners of the eyes. Do not apply the cream on the eyelids. In case of accidental contact with the eyes, rinse well with lukewarm water.
